

SING for Fun

Be loud be proud!

Join us for a new community choir for those of us ageing beautifully.

An inclusive, open group for everyone on the fun side of fifty.

No experience necessary. Enthusiasm welcome. And bring a friend!

WHERE: MISA Centre at St James' Hospital

WHEN: Mondays 10.30am to 12noon

STARTS: Monday January 29th 2018

For more details, call Kate on 01 222 6705

Our choir leader is Norah Walsh from RTE's Choir of Ages.

We welcome people with dementia or memory loss, carers and friends.

If transport is a challenge please call.

Dublin's Culture Connects is an initiative of Dublin City Council that aims to connect Dubliners to their city through making and taking part in culture. We base projects on people's stories, wishes and experiences. We do this in the best way possible by listening, learning and sharing. We are not afraid to try new things.
